Applicant's amendments and comments, received November 7, 2003, have been fully considered by the examiner. The following is a complete response to the November 7, 2003 communication.

Terminal Disclaimer

The terminal disclaimer does not comply with 37 CFR 1.321(b) and/or (c) because:

The person who has signed the disclaimer has not stated the extent of his/her interest, or the business entity's interest, in the application/patent. See 37 CFR 1.321(b)(3).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 9 is directed solely to printed subject matter, which is non-statutory subject matter. In particular, claim 9 merely sets forth a set of instructions for the use of the device, which set of instructions constitute printed subject matter which is not functionally associated with the operation of the device.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

Art Unit: 3739

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-22 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-11 of U.S. Patent No. 6,464,689. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the use a display screen and operating system is deemed to be an obvious inclusion of such a system for monitoring information as it is being processed.

Claims 1-22 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over the pending claims of copending Application No. 10/212,311. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the use a display screen and operating system is deemed to be an obvious inclusion of such a system for monitoring information as it is being processed.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

copending Application No. 10/219,798. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the use a display screen and operating system is deemed to be an obvious inclusion of such a system for monitoring information as it is being processed.

Response to Arguments

Concerning the 35 USC 101 rejection, the examiner disagrees with applicant's assertion that the amendment has obviated the rejection. The recitation of claim 9 is directed solely to written subject matter and is non-statutory.

With regard to the double patenting issues, the terminal disclaimer filed with the response of November 7, 2003 is not acceptable for the reasons mentioned previously. The provisional double patenting issues will be further addressed upon allowance of one of the applications.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 3739

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
